16TH YEAR. NO. 159.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1900.

TWO CENTS

THE BARNES WERE IN COURT AGAIN

This Time They Acted as Plaintiffs
In Cases Against Constable
Miller.

ONE CASE WAS DISMISSED

Miller Made No Defense In the
Slander Action and Was Bound Over

TO COURT IN THE SUM OF $100

The court of Justice H. P. McCarron was the scene last night of two cases, in both of which Constable
James A. Miller figured as defendant.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes had each filed a suit against Miller, the former for assault and the latter on a charge of false and malicious libel in saying that Mrs. Barnes was a drunken woman, and had to be wheeled home in a wheelbarrow. The squire had set both cases for the same evening, and last night as early as 7 o'clock the court room was filled with witnesses and interested spectators.

Attorney G. Y. Travis was there in behalf of the constable, and the first matter to be considered was the complaint of John Barnes for assault. The offense was alleged to have been committed on the afternoon of December 6, in the office of Justice McLane while negotiations were in progress for the binding of Barnes to court on a charge of disturbing a public meeting, which had previously been held in the latter court.

But one witness was examined for the state, and he was Henry Rark, who had accompanied Barnes to the office of Justice McLane, and who went on the bond of Barnes at the time. Mr. Rark's testimony was convincing and left no doubt in the minds of those present as to his ability to illustrate just how it happened.

The witness testified that Barnes had called the defendant a liar and that Miller had sailed around the railing toward Barnes in a menacing manner. It was all he could do to keep the men apart. He thought the constable would have struck the plaintiff had he not been there.

John Barnes testified in his own behalf and told about the same story, with the exception that Miller, according to the testimony, had "flew"
around the railing.

Barnes had not proceeded far when the attorney for defendant objected to the court putting testimony into the mouth of the witness, as he had asked several questions, to which the attorney had objected.

The prosecution rested with this,
and David Stanley was called for the defense. The witness had seen the whole thing. Barnes had called Miller a liar, and the latter walked around the railing, shaking his fist at Barnes, saying he would not take that from any one.

Some amusement was created by the witness' answer to a question as to whether Miller flew around the railing. Stanley stated that anyone who knew Miller would never say he flew anywhere. He didn't see Miller strike Barnes; didn't see him strike at Barnes; in fact he didn't think Miller intended to strike him.

Justice McLane was the next witness, but he was not present and a delay was caused while Constable

Powell went for him.

When he came he testified to practically the same as Stanley, excepting that Barnes had suggested to Rark that he let him at Miller. The court asked witness if he was not led to believe from what transpired that a fracas was imminent, to which Travis objected and the court did not insist. Later a similar question was put to the witness with a like result,
but the court ruled that the testimony was competent and McLane said in his opinion if Miller had had as much sand as Barnes the men would have come together.

This ended the testimony and after a short argument on the part of Attorney Travis, the justice dismissed defendant at the cost of the prosecution.

The second case—that of Mrs.
Barnes against the constable for false and malicious libel—was called immediately.

While the first case was in progress
the plaintiff concluded that they had better have an attorney and Captain W. M. Hill, who was present, was retained.

The prosecution had the following witnesses sworn: W. B. Hill, John Wallace, Charles Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Bell, Henry Rark and John Barnes, and after the costs in the latter case had been posted in the hands of the squire the case was proceeded with.

John Wallace had heard Miller say that Mrs. Barnes had to be wheeled home in a wheelbarrow, and if he remembered rightly one of the Vod-reys was mentioned as the man who had done the wheeling. The conversation had taken place in the office of Mr. W. B. Hill, where he is a law student.

Walter's Hill's testimony was along the same line and was the same in substance as that given by Wallace.

With these the prosecution rested and the plaintiff's attorney made a motion that the case be dismissed on the grounds that the prosecution had not proved what the bill of particulars charged, but the motion was overruled and the defense was about to proceed with their argument when another idea struck him, and they rested also.

It was now in the hands of the justice,
who promptly bound defendant
over to court in the sum of $100, which was as promptly furnished by E. W. Hill, and the case was at an end, at least as far as the lower court is concerned.

THE JURY RETURNED A VERDICT
AGAINST JACK REAVES.

George Stewart, the Prosecuting Witness, Was Married Immediately
After the Trial.

Lisbon, Dec. 14.—(Special)—The jury in the case of Ohio versus Jack Reaves, of East Liverpool, returned a verdict charging him with being guilty of shooting George Stewart with intent to kill.

Notice was given that a motion for a new trial would be filed.

George H. B. Stewart, who was the prosecuting witness in the case of Ohio against Jack Reaves, yesterday came into probate court at the conclusion of the trial and was married to Miss Clara C. B. Wells. Stewart is from West Middleton, Pa., and his wife is from Wellsville.

Mayor Farrell performed the ceremony.

open foe of evil, sin and lawlessness.

Lisbon and East Liverpool councils
they propose to commence work May 1st, and have the road in operation by January, 1902.

The road will follow the old public road from Salem to Lisbon, passing Shelton's Grove.

After it leaves Lisbon it will follow
the Wellsville road to West Point, here it will go through private property to what is known as the Welsh road and thence to this city. At Pleasant Heights it will branch off and come down Edgewood avenue to the city and land passengers in the Diamond.

Mr. Smith has secured all the right of way and will come into council in about 30 days and ask for a franchise.
His is an entirely new company in the field and one that has had much experience in the building and operating of street railways.

The cars will be the same as are now used on the Cleveland and suburban lines. They will be 55-foot coaches, double trucks, air brakes and whistles and fitted with all the conveniences of a passenger coach.

It is also proposed to put in a large park near this city and run a summer theater.

Mr. Smith is very enthusiastic over the outlook and is confident that the road will be built in the time specified.

The people of this city will give him all the encouragement he wants,
as they are very desirous of having such a line built. There is no question that the line would pay after a short time. Every person here sincerely hopes that this will not be another wild goose chase, and Mr.
Smith states that it is not and that the line will positively be built within the time specified.

Lisbon, Dec. 14.—(Special)—Joseph
S. Faloon, of Hanoverton, has asked the court to dissolve the saloon partnership in Hanoverton township and appoint a receiver to look after the affairs of the property and dispose of the same.

On October 1 last Faloon and Emmor Bettin entered into a partnership for the purpose of engaging in the saloon business. The agreement was that each was to furnish one-half of the capital and each bear one-half the loss. According to the contract Fa-loon furnished $400 and has since learned that Bettin did not contribute one cent, but instead has been buying large amounts of liquor and having them charged to the partnership.

He also says Bettin has been appropriating to his own use the money realized from the sales and has refused to account for it.

Mrs. Florence Wright, of Cumberland, has instituted proceedings in gether with all household goods and

WON A CASE.

An Action in Replevin Before Squire
Finney at Clarkson Last Friday.

A case of replevin was tried before Squire Finney last Friday, wherein the firm of Smith & Phillips, of East Liverpool, was plaintiff and John Flowers was defendant.

The property replevined was a Thompson organ, which had been purchased by Flowers in 1897 and on which he had paid only $10. Flowers refused to give up the organ and suit was brought to compel him to do so.
The squire gave judgment for the amount of the claim and costs of action.

Attorney L. T. Farr, of Rogers, represented the plaintiff, and H. D. Cope, of East Carmel, was attorney for the defendant.

PATRONS WILL BE PLEASED

Commencing next Monday morning conductors will be placed on all the cars of the East Liverpool street railway line, and there is no doubt that the motormen and patrons of the line are very thankful, as this will mean an end of the numerous accidents to people getting on and off the cars.

Yesterday Manager Healy notified the motormen that he was willing to accede to their last proposition and would place conductors on the cars Monday morning. This proposition is that all new men shall receive 18 cents an hour for their first year, but that all old motormen shall receive 20 cents an hour.

It will be remembered that Manager
Healy made a proposition to the motormen to pay them all 18 cents an hour, so that the settlement is a compromise.

The manager of the line and the men, as well as the public, are pleased that the question was settled in so amicable a way. The men have the warmest terms of praise for Manager
Healy, and say that in all their dealings with him they have found him to be fair and willing to arbitrate any question which may arise.

The public in general will be very glad to know that the matter was settled without a strike. They will be pleased to learn that conductors will be put on the line.

AGAINST JACK REAVES.

George Stewart, the Prosecuting Witness, Was Married Immediately After the Trial.

Lisbon, Dec. 14.—(Special)—The jury in the case of Ohio versus Jack Reaves, of East Liverpool, returned a verdict charging him with being guilty of shooting George Stewart with intent to kill.

Notice was given that a motion for a new trial would be filed.

George H. B. Stewart, who was the prosecuting witness in the case of Ohio against Jack Reaves, yesterday came into probate court at the conclusion of the trial and was married to Miss Clara C. B. Wells. Stewart is from West Middleton, Pa., and his wife is from Wellsville.

Mayor Farrell performed the ceremony.

—Miss Frances Webster left this morning for Pittsburgh.

STREET RAILWAY LINE TO SALEM

U. J. Smith, of Cleveland, Was Here Yesterday Securing Rights of Way.

A NEW YORK SYNDICATE

Is Back of Him and He Is Positive
That the Road Will

BUILT IN LESS THAN TWO YEARS

If plans now under way mature the people of East Liverpool will be able to get aboard a trolley car in this city and in less than two hours arrive in the city of Salem without having to change cars during the journey.

U. J. Smith, of Cleveland, was in the city yesterday securing right of way for the new line. Mr. Smith is backed by a New York syndicate of capitalists who have the money to build and equip the line, and if they secure the necessary franchises from the Salem,

Lisbon and East Liverpool councils they propose to commence work May 1st, and have the road in operation by January, 1902.

The road will follow the old public road from Salem to Lisbon, passing Shelton's Grove.

After it leaves Lisbon it will follow the Wellsville road to West Point, here it will go through private property to what is known as the Welsh road and thence to this city. At Pleasant Heights it will branch off and come down Edgewood avenue to the city and land passengers in the Diamond.

Mr. Smith has secured all the right of way and will come into council in about 30 days and ask for a franchise. His is an entirely new company in the field and one that has had much experience in the building and operating of street railways.

The cars will be the same as are now used on the Cleveland and suburban lines. They will be 55-foot coaches, double trucks, air brakes and whistles and fitted with all the conveniences of a passenger coach.

It is also proposed to put in a large park near this city and run a summer theater.

Mr. Smith is very enthusiastic over the outlook and is confident that the road will be built in the time specified.

The people of this city will give him all the encouragement he wants, as they are very desirous of having such a line built. There is no question that the line would pay after a short time. Every person here sincerely hopes that this will not be another wild goose chase, and Mr. Smith states that it is not and that the line will positively be built within the time specified.

THE OWNERS OF A HANOVERTON SALOON DISAGREE AND

If Affairs Turn Out Right it Will Mean
That the Village Will Have One
Saloon Less.

Lisbon, Dec. 14.—(Special)—Joseph S. Faloon, of Hanoverton, has asked the court to dissolve the saloon partnership in Hanoverton township and appoint a receiver to look after the affairs of the property and dispose of the same.

On October 1 last Faloon and Emmer Bettin entered into a partnership for the purpose of engaging in the saloon business. The agreement was that each was to furnish one-half of the capital and each bear one-half the loss. According to the contract Faloon furnished $400 and has since learned that Bettin did not contribute one cent, but instead has been buying large amounts of liquor and having them charged to the partnership. He also says Bettin has been appropriating to his own use the money realized from the sales and has refused to account for it.

WON A CASE.

An Action in Replevin Before Squire Finney at Clarkson Last Friday.

A case of replevin was tried before Squire Finney last Friday, wherein the firm of Smith & Phillips, of East Liverpool, was plaintiff and John Flowers was defendant.

The property replevined was a Thompson organ, which had been purchased by Flowers in 1897 and on which he had paid only $10. Flowers refused to give up the organ and suit was brought to compel him to do so. The squire gave judgment for the amount of the claim and costs of action.

Attorney L. T. Farr, of Rogers, represented the plaintiff, and H. D. Cope, of East Carmel, was attorney for the defendant.

NO TRAIN.

The Agitation in Wellsville Goes Busily On, But Will Probably Amount to Nothing.

The agitation for a train from Wellsville to this city to carry the workmen to and fro goes busily on in Wellsville.

People who profess to know, claim the movement will amount to nothing, as the railroad company will not put on any trains, taking the position that should they do so the street railway company would put their cars back on the 12-minute schedule and then the parties would desert the train.

CONDUCTORS WILL GO ON MONDAY

Street Car Matter Has Been Adjusted Amicably to All Parties Concerned.

HEALY ACCEPTS PROPOSITION

Of Motormen and Will Play All New Men 18 Cents an Hour.

PATRONS WILL BE PLEASED

Commencing next Monday morning conductors will be placed on all the cars of the East Liverpool street railway line, and there is no doubt that the motormen and patrons of the line are very thankful, as this will mean an end of the numerous accidents to people getting on and off the cars.

Yesterday Manager Healy notified the motormen that he was willing to accede to their last proposition and would place conductors on the cars Monday morning. This proposition is that all new men shall receive 18 cents an hour for their first year, but that all old motormen shall receive 20 cents an hour.

It will be remembered that Manager Healy made a proposition to the motormen to pay them all 18 cents an hour, so that the settlement is a compromise.

The manager of the line and the men, as well as the public, are pleased that the question was settled in so amicable a way. The men have the warmest terms of praise for Manager Healy, and say that in all their dealings with him they have found him to be fair and willing to arbitrate any question which may arise.

The public in general will be very glad to know that the matter was settled without a strike. They will be pleased to learn that conductors will be put on the line.

All That is Mortal of Private Benoni W. Dawson Arrived Here Yesterday.

The remains of Benoni W. Dawson were received in the city yesterday from San Francisco.

Dawson was a private in Company F, First Colorado volunteer infantry, and on October 24, 1898, died at Honolulu from typhoid fever. He was aged about 24 years and has relatives residing near Industry.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and will be in charge of the Grand Army and Sons of Veterans. Interment will be made in Riverview cemetery.

No Violations.

No arrests have been made so far this year in the county for violation of the game laws. Deputy Game Warden J. P. McArtor, of Garfield, said this is the best record made for five years, and considers the last game laws the best one ever made for the farmers.

HOW FAKE REPORTS GET THEIR START

East Liverpool Is Just Now Overburdened With Unreliable Correspondents Who Send

BADLY EXAGGERATED STORIES

The Closing of East End Schools Gave Them a Splendid Opportunity.

A TELEGRAM TO THE MAYOR

The irresponsible correspondent is a menace to the welfare of any city, and just now East Liverpool seems to be overburdened with a stock of them.

When the East End schools were closed it gave the so-called correspondent a chance and little did he care what kind of a report he sent out to the city papers just so he could rake in the 25 or 30 cents the article would bring to his pockets. He sent the report and had all the schools, churches and public halls in the city closed, while the diphtheria, according to his story, was carrying off people by the dozens every day.

The item was copied in all the state papers and the correspondent swelled up and conveyed to some of his friends the idea of what a wonderful man he was and exhibited the few cents the story brought him. He don't care for his town, he is not built that way.

An idea of what damage he can do to a city is given in the following telegram, which was received yesterday by Mayor Davidson:

"Canton, O., Dec. 13.
The Honorable Mayor, East Liverpool.

"Reported diphtheria epidemic exists and public places closed. Will you please wire fully. Have big company and don't want to take chances.

"J. B. DICKSON,
Manager Humpty Dumpty."

Mayor Davidson at once wired back: "No epidemic of any kind in city; not even that of crime. Bring on your company."

Stories like the kind sent out about the diphtheria are to be expected in the future, as the correspondent is well known to the people in the city.

The city papers should be notified of the irresponsibility of their correspondents in this city and an effort made to put a stop to the plain and unvarnished falsehoods.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND WAS HEARD.

He and McGoldrick Declare Canteen In Interest of Temperance.

Washington, Dec. 14.—In the senate committee on military affairs the hearing on the army reorganization bill was continued, and in addition to a number of army officers, Archbishop Ireland and Bishop McGoldrick were heard. The two prelates spoke only on the provision of the bill prohibiting the establishment of canteens or post exchanges. Both of them pronounced the provision unwise and expressed the opinion that the canteen is in the interest of temperance and good morals in the army.

Archbishop Ireland based his remarks especially upon his observations of affairs at Fort Snelling, near his home, at St. Paul. He said that he was sure from all that he had seen and heard among the soldiers that the canteen is a powerful factor in the protection of the soldiers from outside temptations of all kinds, and he did not accept the theory that the canteen brings temptation to the troops that otherwise would not come to them.

The archbishop said he was a total abstainer himself.

Senator Burrows asked a question concerning the canteen as a temptation to young men in the army who had never drunk before entering the ranks.

"That sort of a man in the army is rather a rare article," the archbishop replied, "but if the rare article does turn up, as it may, and if a man is found in the army who has been able to resist the temptations of the saloons in ordinary life, I think he will be able to resist the evils of the canteen."

Colonel Guehrer, senior artillery colonel, and Major Romey, a retired army officer, also took a positive stand for the canteen.

JURORS HAD NOT AGREED.

Those In Morrison Case Were Again Sent to Bed Last Night.

Eldorado, Kan., Dec. 14.—Judge Shinn sent the Morrison jurors to their hotel about 9:30 last night and instructed them to resume their deliberations at 8:30 this morning. The 12 men looked tired and faded as they filed out of the court room. They have informed the court that they are hopelessly of different minds as regards Miss Morrison's guilt and that they have stopped balloting in the jury room.

Judge Shinn would give out no information as to the length of time he would permit the jury to deliberate.

East Liverpool Is Just Now Overburdened With Unreliable Correspondents Who Send

BADLY EXAGGERATED STORIES

The Closing of East End Schools Gave Them a Splendid Opportunity.

A TELEGRAM TO THE MAYOR

The irresponsible correspondent is a menace to the welfare of any city, and just now East Liverpool seems to be overburdened with a stock of them.

When the East End schools were closed it gave the so-called correspondent a chance and little did he care what kind of a report he sent out to the city papers just so he could rake in the 25 or 30 cents the article would bring to his pockets. He sent the report and had all the schools, churches and public halls in the city closed, while the diphtheria, according to his story, was carrying off people by the dozens every day.

The item was copied in all the state papers and the correspondent swelled up and conveyed to some of his friends the idea of what a wonderful man he was and exhibited the few cents the story brought him. He don't care for his town, he is not built that way.

An idea of what damage he can do to a city is given in the following telegram, which was received yesterday by Mayor Davidson:

"Canton, O., Dec. 13.

"The Honorable Mayor, East Liverpool.

"Reported diphtheria epidemic exists and public places closed. Will you please wire fully. Have big company and don't want to take chances.

"J. B. DICKSON,

"Manager Humpty Dumpty."

Mayor Davidson at once wired back: "No epidemic of any kind in city; not even that of crime. Bring on your company."

Stories like the kind sent out about the diphtheria are to be expected in the future, as the correspondent is well known to the people in the city.

The city papers should be notified of the irresponsibility of their correspondents in this city and an effort made to put a stop to the plain and unvarnished falsehoods.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND WAS HEARD.

He and McGoldrick Declare Canteen In Interest of Temperance.

Washington, Dec. 14.—In the senate committee on military affairs the hearing on the army reorganization bill was continued, and in addition to a number of army officers, Archbishop Ireland and Bishop McGoldrick were heard. The two prelates spoke only on the provision of the bill prohibiting the establishment of canteens or post exchanges. Both of them pronounced the provision unwise and expressed the opinion that the canteen is in the interest of temperance and good morals in the army.

Archbishop Ireland based his remarks especially upon his observations of affairs at Fort Snelling, near his home, at St. Paul. He said that he was sure from all that he had seen and heard among the soldiers that the canteen is a powerful factor in the protection of the soldiers from outside temptations of all kinds, and he did not accept the theory that the canteen brings temptation to the troops that otherwise would not come to them.

The archbishop said he was a total abstainer himself.

Senator Burrows asked a question concerning the canteen as a temptation to young men in the army who had never drunk before entering the ranks.

"That sort of a man in the army is rather a rare article," the archbishop replied, "but if the rare article does turn up, as it may, and if a man is found in the army who has been able to resist the temptations of the saloons in ordinary life, I think he will be able to resist the evils of the canteen."

Colonel Gueht Jr., senior artillery colonel, and Major Romeyn, a retired army officer, also took a positive stand for the canteen.

JURORS HAD NOT AGREED.

Those In Morrison Case Were Again Sent to Bed Last Night.

Eldorado, Kan., Dec. 14.—Judge Shinn sent the Morrison jurors to their hotel about 9:30 last night and instructed them to resume their deliberations at 8:30 this morning. The 12 men looked tired and faded as they filed out of the court room. They have informed the court that they are hopelessly of different minds as regards Miss Morrison's guilt and that they have stopped balloting in the jury room.

Judge Shinn would give out no intimation as to the length of time he would permit the jury to deliberate.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1900.

SKILLED WORKMEN.

The printers employed on the News Review are skillful and careful workmen. We employ none other. Advertisements are set up artistically, carefully and judiciously, much to the delight of our business patrons. Lesser lights, in would-be rival establishments, pattern after the styles we originate. The advertisement on the eighth page of last night's issue is a beauty. Permit us to "tongue" our bugle. We admire a skillful, honest and sober workman.

HIS WORD OF HONOR.

When a man's pledged word of honor amounts to nothing; when he pledges that which he calls "his honor" that he is telling the truth, and then lies, outrageously and premeditatedly, his oath on a stack of bibles would not amount to a bauble, and would not be taken in any court in the land. Such a fellow is sure to be a failure, even in this life. He may deceive his fellows, and the public at large, for the time being, and apparently be on the road to success; but, sooner or later, his downfall will come. The handwriting is on the wall. He has builded on an evil, untrustworthy and false foundation, and his structure is sure to tumble into the dust of defeat and humiliation. "Honesty is the best policy." "Truth is mighty and shall prevail." The liar and cheat is beneath the contempt of true men and true women. He is a tool of the devil, working for his Master at starvation wages. Respectfully referred to the miserable creature to whom this applies, and he resides right here in East Liverpool.

GOOD AND BAD.

A good, pure, honest Christian woman is an admirable character, worthy of the warmest commendation and highest respect. Such a woman or girl is a blessing to any home or community. She is the peer of any one on earth. One of God's choicest blessings, be she rich or poor, great or humble, the inhabitant of an humble cottage or the dweller in a palace. Every true and honorable man regards her with respect and esteem. Her direct opposite is the woman or girl vile of language and conduct, associating with vile characters and gradually approaching the horrible pathway of the scarlet woman, whose feet tramp down to hades. Such a creature is a curse inconceivable in any community, to be dreaded as one would dread a pestilence or a leper. And the man, young or old, who encourages or associates with such miserable women is an unsafe and dangerous man, to be barred from all decent and respectable society, even more than one with the mark of Cain upon his forehead. Teach them the lesson in East Liverpool.

MRS. JANE BARNES

WANTS THE CASE AGAINST HER HUSBAND TRIED.

She Appeared at the Office of Squire McLane And Made a Request.

Mrs. Jane Barnes came to the office of Justice McLane this morning, and from all indications she was there for business and nothing else.

The squire was calm, as usual, and refused to become excited. Mrs. Barnes stated that the object of her visit was to make a demand that the case against her husband for disturbing a public meeting be taken up and tried.

It will be remembered that on December 6, Barnes had appeared in McLane's court, waived a hearing and was bound over to court. The squire inquired who the woman's attorney was and was informed that was her business and none of his. She was told to send her attorney to attend to any business she might have to transact, as the court would not treat with her.

It is likely that nothing will be done with the matter here, as the transcript has been prepared and will undoubtedly go over to court.

A CLAIM

Has Been Presented by Jacob Culp Asking for a Refunding of Taxes.

Lisbon, Dec. 14.—(Special.)—Jacob Culp has presented a claim in court against the county commissioners, asking for a refunding of taxes for four years.

Culp lives in Salem township and together with other parties is owner of leaseholds upon certain Salem township property. He states that they paid the taxes for four years and in so doing were unadvised as to their liability.

ONLY 30 MINUTES.

That Was All the Time it Took the Jury to Find Robert Hopkins Guilty.

Lisbon, Dec. 14.—(Special.)—The jury retired at noon today in the case of Ohio against Robert Hopkins, of East Liverpool, and within 30 minutes returned a verdict against him charging him with being guilty of shooting with intent to wound.

He was charged with shooting at Robert Downard with intent to kill and wound.

A motion will be filed for a new trial.

Mrs. Jane Barnes came to the office of Justice McLane this morning, and from all indications she was there for business and nothing else.

The squire was calm, as usual, and refused to become excited. Mrs. Barnes stated that the object of her visit was to make a demand that the case against her husband for disturbing a public meeting be taken up and tried.

It will be remembered that on December 6, Barnes had appeared in McLane's court, waived a hearing and was bound over to court. The squire inquired who the woman's attorney was and was informed that was her business and none of his. She was told to send her attorney to attend to any business she might have to transact, as the court would not treat with her.

It is likely that nothing will be done with the matter here, as the transcript has been prepared and will undoubtedly go over to court.

A CLAIM

Has Been Presented by Jacob Culp Asking for a Refunding of Taxes.

Lisbon, Dec. 14.—(Special)—Jacob Culp has presented a claim in court against the county commissioners, asking for a refunding of taxes for four years.

Culp lives in Salem township and together with other parties is owner of leaseholds upon certain Salem township property. He states that they paid the taxes for four years and in so doing were unadvised as to their liability.

SKILLED WORKMEN.

The printers employed on the News Review are skillful and careful workmen. We employ none other. Advertisements are set up artistically carefully and judiciously, much to the delight of our business patrons. Lesser lights, in would-be rival establishments, pattern after the styles we originate. The advertisement on the eighth page of last night's issue is a beauty. Permit us to "tongue" our bugle. We admire a skillful, honest and sober workman.

HIS WORD OF HONOR.

When a man's pledged word of honor amounts to nothing; when he pledges that which he calls "his honor" that he is telling the truth, and then lies, outrageously and premeditatedly, his oath on a stack of bibles would not amount to a baubee, and would not be taken in any court in the land. Such a fellow is sure to be a failure, even in this life. He may deceive his fellows, and the public at large, for the time being, and apparently be on the road to success; but, sooner or later, his downfall will come. The handwriting is on the wall. He has builded on an evil, untrustworthy and false foundation, and his structure is sure to tumble into the dust of defeat and humiliation. "Honesty is the best policy." "Truth is mighty and shall prevail." The liar and cheat is beneath the contempt of true men and true women. He is a tool of the devil, working for his Master at starvation wages. Respectfully referred to the miserable creature to whom this applies, and he resides right here in East Liverpool.

GOOD AND BAD.

A good, pure, honest Christian woman is an admirable character, worthy of the warmest commendation and highest respect. Such a woman or girl is a blessing to any home or community. She is the peer of any one on earth. One of God's choicest blessings, be she rich or poor, great or humble, the inhabitant of an humble cottage or the dweller in a palace. Every true and honorable man regards her with respect and esteem. Her direct opposite is the woman or girl vile of language and conduct, associating with vile characters and gradually approaching the horrible pathway of the scarlet woman, whose feet tramp down to hades. Such a creature is a curse inconceivable in any community, to be dreaded as one would dread a pestilence or a leper. And the man, young or old, who encourages or associates with such miserable women is an unsafe and dangerous man, to be barred from all decent and respectable society, even more than one with the mark of Cain upon his forehead. Teach them the lesson in East Liverpool.

HELD UP BY ONE MAN.

Train Robbery Near New Orleans City Limit.

CONDUCTOR SHOT IN THE GROIN.

A Railway Mail Clerk Slightly Powder-Burned—Robber Got One Mail Pouch and Six Registered Letters—Rode Away on the Engine, Then Abandoned It.

New Orleans, Dec. 14.—A south-bound Illinois Central fast mail train was held up and robbed by a lone train robber about one mile above the upper limits of the city. Though some of the train crew said they saw four or more men concealed in the bushes, only one man figured in the action, and his booty consisted of only one registered mail pouch from Durant, Miss., and six other registered letters from points between Cairo and New Orleans. Conductor Kinnebrew was shot in the groin and J. C. Parker, railway mail clerk, has his left eye powder burned by a shot directed at his head. The robber got on the train, it is supposed, at some point above the city, and after passing Kenner he went over to the engine and covered the engineer and fireman and brought the train to a standstill.

When the conductor came forward to see what the trouble was he was shot by the robber. R. E. Goldsby, a railway mail clerk, stuck his head out of the door and was ordered to jump down, which he did. Then the robber led the engineer, fireman and Goldsby toward the express car and made one of them blow the side of it out with a stick of dynamite which he supplied. This train carries no money and has no safe. The robber then went for the mail car and there discovered Parker, who had hidden the registered pouches. He shot at him and then one of the pouches was produced and he made off with it. He uncoupled the engine from the train and ran it to a point near Carrollton avenue, where he abandoned it. The robber was evidently well acquainted with railroading.

ROBBED BANK AND FLED.

Thieves Got Over $3,000 at Shanesville, O.—Fired Shots at Different People.

Canal Dover, O., Dec. 14.—Four men broke into the private bank of John Doerschuk, at Shanesville, blew open the safe by a terrific charge of nitroglycerin. The explosion awakened those who live in the vicinity of the bank.

John Rhoades, who lives directly across the street from the bank, sprang from his bed and hastened to the window. Within the bank he saw two men working. On guard in front were two others. Dressing hastily, he ran down stairs and into the street, revolver in hand. As he emerged the two men on guard made him a target and one bullet after another whistled by him.

Rhoades emptied his revolver. Then he took shelter in the house. Rhoades believes he shattered an arm of one of the men.

Miss Mary Knowles, a relative of Bunker Doerschuk, who lives within a few feet of the bank, threw up the window of her sleeping chamber and screamed shrilly. A bullet crashed into the wood near her head and the frightened girl disappeared. By this time other men had armed themselves and were running toward the bank from all directions. Bullets from the robber guards sent each scurrying back to cover.

Burdened with between $3,000 and $4,000 worth of gold, silver and bank notes, the four men huddled together and moved rapidly through the darkness to the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad, clearing their path and covering their retreat by a fusilade of bullets. At the railroad they sprang aboard a mail car and slowly gathering speed started away northward into the darkness. The operator at

Baltic, five miles north, reports they did not pass his station, so that the car must have been abandoned between the towns.

Constable Johnson at once telephoned to the county seat for bloodhounds, which have been dispatched to trail the robbers. John Doerschuk has maintained a bank at Shanesville for many years. It was a depository for the country folks from many miles in all directions.

ROBBERY ON A MAIL CAR.

Two Men Committed Deed—Postal Clerk Assaulted by One—May Die.

Texarkana, Ark., Dec. 14.—A bold robbery on the Cottonbelt railway occurred near Bassett, Texas, 30 miles south of Texarkana, on the train coming north, in which Postal Clerk John N. Dennis was almost killed and the mail pouches of the car rifled of their contents.

A hurried examination showed that the registered packages had been ripped open and robbed of their contents, the most valuable of which was the Waco-Memphis through pouch, containing a large number of valuable packages.

Dennis was revived sufficiently at a hospital to say that two men had committed the deed, one of whom assaulted him. He is in a critical condition.

Examination of the car showed that the robbers gained entrance by crawling through a small trap door in the floor of the vestibule.

Word reached here that two suspects had been arrested at Naples, near the scene of the robbery, but none of the stolen packages were found. Dennis is an old and trusted mail clerk.

GANS WAS KNOCKED OUT.

The Fight Won by McGovern In the Second Round.

Chicago, Dec. 14.—Terry McGovern knocked out Joe Gans, of Baltimore, after about two minutes and five seconds of fighting in the second round. Gans put up a very poor exhibition. He was knocked down twice in the first round and four times in the second.

On the last knockdown he was on his back for six seconds; rolled over on his face, rose to his left knee and remained in that position until Siler tapped him on the shoulder, telling him that the fight was over and that he was a loser. He was lifted and was able to walk in a feeble manner to his corner.

Gans had no excuses to offer for his defeat. His seconds, however, said that he was over trained and that his stomach had been bad all day.

After the fight there were many vigorous expressions of dissatisfaction among the crowd, it being openly asserted by many that Gans made a deliberate fake of his fight.

REDUCED NUMBER OF DIRECTORS.

Baseball Magnates Have Fewer—Abandon Southern Practice Trips.

New York, Dec. 14.—The National magnates decided to reduce the board of directors from a membership of six to four.

Soden, of Boston; Freedman, of New York; Brush, of Cincinnati, and Dreyfuss, of Pittsburg, compose the new board.

Messrs. Soden, Young, Robison, Brush, Rogers and Hart were appointed members of the board of arbitration.

It was decided not to have any more southern practice trips, and that players shall not report for preliminary practice before April 1.

The demands of the players came in for a long discussion. No decision was reached.

The demands made by the players' organization were denied by the club owners. The players, however, were invited by the league to apply for another hearing, which was done.

Steamfitter's Helper Killed.

Pittsburg, Dec. 14.—John Bailes, 25 years old, a steam fitter's helper, was killed while at work in Campbell & Horgan's works at No. 4718 Penn avenue. The man's clothing was caught in shafting, and he was almost instantly killed.

Steamfitter's Helper Killed.

ANOTHER TRIAL.

The Michaels-Cloran Forceable Detention Case Will Get Another Hearing.

The attorneys in the suit of John Michaels against Michael Cloran met in the office of Justice McCarron last evening, and after a great deal of discussion the case was fixed for trial on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock.

It will be remembered this suit is for forcible detention, and was tried to a jury on Tuesday and the jury failing to agree it was necessary to retry the case.

The jury before whom the suit will be tried on this occasion are: T. M. Bennett, W. T. Burton, W. H. Gass, Chas. B. Fisher and Edward Hassey.

A hurried examination showed that the registered packages had been ripped open and robbed of their contents, the most valuable of which was the Waco-Memphis through pouch, containing a large number of valuable packages.

Dennis was revived sufficiently at a hospital to say that two men had committed the deed, one of whom assaulted him. He is in a critical condition.

Examination of the car showed that the robbers gained entrance by crawling through a small trap door in the floor of the vestibule.

Word reached here that two suspects had been arrested at Naples, near the scene of the robbery, but none of the stolen packages were found. Dennis is an old and trusted mail clerk.

GANS WAS KNOCKED OUT.

The Fight Won by McGovern In the Second Round.

Chicago, Dec. 14.—Terry McGovern knocked out Joe Gans, of Baltimore, after about two minutes and five seconds of fighting in the second round. Gans put up a very poor exhibition. He was knocked down twice in the first round and four times in the second.

On the last knockdown he was on his back for six seconds; rolled over on his face, rose to his left knee and remained in that position until Siler tapped him on the shoulder, telling him that the fight was over and that he was a loser. He was lifted and was able to walk in a feeble manner to his corner.

Gans had no excuses to offer for his defeat. His seconds, however, said that he was over trained and that his stomach had been bad all day.

After the fight there were many vigorous expressions of dissatisfaction among the crowd, it being openly asserted by many that Gans made a deliberate fake of his fight.

REDUCED NUMBER OF DIRECTORS.

Baseball Magnates Have Fewer—Abandon Southern Practice Trips.

New York, Dec. 14.—The National magnates decided to reduce the board of directors from a membership of six to four.

Soden, of Boston; Freedman, of New York; Brush, of Cincinnati, and Dreyfuss, of Pittsburg, compose the new board.

Messrs. Soden, Young, Robison, Brush, Rogers and Hart were appointed members of the board of arbitration.

It was decided not to have any more southern practice trips, and that players shall not report for preliminary practice before April 1.

The demands of the players came in for a long discussion. No decision was reached.

The demands made by the players' organization were denied by the club owners. The players, however, were invited by the league to apply for another hearing, which was done.

Steamfitter's Helper Killed.

Pittsburgh, Dec. 14.—John Bailes, 25 years old, a steam fitter's helper, was killed while at work in Campbell & Horigan's works at No. 4718 Penn avenue. The man's clothing was caught in shafting, and he was almost instantly killed.

ANOTHER TRIAL.

The Michaels-Cloran Forceable Detention Case Will Get Another Hearing.

The attorneys in the suit of John Michaels against Michael Cloran met in the office of Justice McCarron last evening, and after a great deal of discussion the case was fixed for trial on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock.

It will be remembered this suit is for forcible detention, and was tried to a jury on Tuesday and the jury failing to agree it was necessary to retry the case.

The jury before whom the suit will be tried on this occasion are: T. M. Bennett, W. T. Burton, W. H. Gass, Chas. B. Fisher and Edward Hassey.

HELD UP BY ONE MAN.

Train Robbery Near New Orleans City Limit.

CONDUCTOR SHOT IN THE GROIN.

A Railway Mail Clerk Slightly Powder Burned—Robber Got One Mail Pouch and Six Registered Letters—Rode Away on the Engine, Then Abandoned It.

New Orleans, Dec. 14.—A southbound Illinois Central fast mail train was held up and robbed by a lone train robber about one mile above the upper limits of the city. Though some of the train crew said they saw four or more men concealed in the bushes, only one man figured in the action, and his booty consisted of only one registered mail pouch from Durant, Miss., and six other registered letters from points between Cairo and New Orleans. Conductor Kinnebrew was shot in the groin and J. C. Parker, railway mail clerk, has his left eye powder burned by a shot directed at his head. The robber got on the train, it is supposed, at some point above the city, and after passing Kenner he went over to the engine and covered the engineer and fireman and brought the train to a standstill.

When the conductor came forward to see what the trouble was he was shot by the robber. R. E. Goldsby, a railway mail clerk, stuck his head out of the door and was ordered to jump down, which he did. Then the robber led the engineer, fireman and Goldsby toward the express car and made one of them blow the side of it out with a stick of dynamite which he supplied. This train carries no money and has no safe. The robber then went for the mail car and there discovered Parker, who had hidden the registered pouches. He shot at him and then one of the pouches was produced and he made off with it. He uncoupled the engine from the train and ran it to a point near Carrollton avenue, where he abandoned it. The robber was evidently well acquainted with railroading.

ROBBED BANK AND FLED.

Thieves Got Over $3,000 at Shanesville, O.—Fired Shots at Different People.

Canal Dover, O., Dec. 14.—Four men broke into the private bank of John Doerschuk, at Shanesville, blew open the safe by a terrific charge of nitroglycerin. The explosion awakened those who live in the vicinity of the bank.

John Rhoades, who lives directly across the street from the bank, sprang from his bed and hastened to the window. Within the bank he saw two men working. On guard in front were two others. Dressing hastily, he ran down stairs and into the street, revolver in hand. As he emerged the two men on guard made him a target and one bullet after another whistled by him.

Rhoades emptied his revolver. Then he took shelter in the house. Rhoades believes he shattered an arm of one of the men.

Miss Mary Knowles, a relative of Bunker Doerschuk, who lives within a few feet of the bank, threw up the window of her sleeping chamber and screamed shrilly. A bullet crashed into the wood near her head and the frightened girl disappeared. By this time other men had armed themselves and were running toward the bank from all directions. Bullets from the robber guards sent each scurrying back to cover.

Burdened with between $3,000 and $4,000 worth of gold, silver and bank notes, the four men huddled together and moved rapidly through the darkness to the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad, clearing their path and covering their retreat by a fusilade of bullets. At the railroad they sprang aboard a hand car and slowly gathering speed whizzed away northward into the darkness. The operator at

Baltic, five miles north, reports they did not pass his station, so that the car must have been abandoned between the towns.

Constable Johnson at once telephoned to the county seat for bloodhounds, which have been dispatched to trail the robbers. John Doerschuk has maintained a bank at Shanesville for many years. It was a depository for the country folks from many miles in all directions.

ROBBERY ON A MAIL CAR.

Two Men Committed Deed—Postal Clerk Assaulted by One—May Die.

Texarkana, Ark., Dec. 14.—A bold robbery on the Cottonbelt railway occurred near Bassett, Texas, 30 miles south of Texarkana, on the train coming north, in which Postal Clerk John N. Dennis was almost killed and the mail pouches of the car rifled of their contents.

A hurried examination showed that the registered packages had been ripped open and robbed of their contents, the most valuable of which was the Waco-Memphis through pouch, containing a large number of valuable packages.

Dennis was revived sufficiently at a hospital to say that two men had committed the deed, one of whom assaulted him. He is in a critical condition.

Examination of the car showed that the robbers gained entrance by crawling through a small trap door in the floor of the vestibule.

Word reached here that two suspects had been arrested at Naples, near the scene of the robbery, but none of the stolen packages were found. Dennis is an old and trusted mail clerk.

Number of Rebels Said to Have Taken Oaths.

ABOUT 1,000 A DAY RUMORED.

The Arrests of Prominent Insurgents Unofficially Reported to Have Started the Movement in the Section of Panay in Which Iloilo Is Situated.

Manila, Dec. 14.—General Kobbe, with the Twenty-eighth volunteer regiment, Colonel Birkhimer commanding the regiment, landed at Cagayan, on the northern coast of Mindanao, and reinforced the six companies of the Fortieth volunteer regiment stationed in the town. An aggressive movement had been planned.

From Iloilo it is unofficially reported that the insurgents in that part of the island of Panay are swearing allegiance at the rate of a thousand a day. The arrests of many prominent insurgents started the movement, which seems to be becoming universal, at Jaro, Molo, Mandurria, Arevalo and Iloilo. Considerable sums of money and large quantities of supplies have been captured by the Americans.

The Taft commission passed an act for General MacArthur to establish police in the cities and towns and appropriating $150,000 for their maintenance. Commissioner Wright has, among other duties, supervision of the constabulary feature.

THE RADICALS VOTED DOWN.

Conservatives Defeated Two Resolutions at Federation Convention.

Louisville, Dec. 14.—Two resolutions championed by the radical element were voted down by overwhelming majorities, in the American Federation of Labor convention. One was a bitter pronouncement against trusts and monopolies in general and the other a declaration in favor of the co-operative commonwealth and government ownership and control of all means of production and distribution. For both of them much more moderate substitutes were adopted after a long debate.

Throughout the debate the proponents of the resolutions claimed socialism as the only solution of the industrial problems; trades unionism, they said, would last as long as the competitive system prevails, but the competitive system should be done away with and the co-operative commonwealth should take its place.

President Gompers and his colleagues, who opposed the resolutions, took the ground that the Federation should not be committed to any political party and that the government ownership proposition is at this time an impracticable theory, with no definite plan for development into a working system.

WORTHY MASTER HILL RE-ELECTED.

Other Officers Chosen at Pennsylvania State Grange Convention.

Lock Haven, Pa., Dec. 14.—Worthy Master W. F. Hill, of Westford, was unanimously re-elected at the meeting of the Pennsylvania State Grange. Several candidates were nominated against him, but his nearest competitor only received 27 votes.

The other officers elected were: Steward, H. M. Goodrall, of Patton; assistant steward, H. H. Pratt, of Oceanville; chaplain, Rev. W. H. Clipman, Finleyville; treasurer, S. E. Niven, Laudenburg; secretary, J. T. Ahman, of Thomontown; gate keeper, W. Chase, Fairbrook; clerks, Mrs. V. B. Holiday, Crooked Creek; pomona, Mrs. L. A. A DELIGHTFUL

Gramophone Entertainment at the Home Residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Thomas.

This entertainment was given last night at the home residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Thomas, Seventh street. There were some fifty persons in attendance. The proceeds are for the benefit of the deaconess fund of the First M. E. church. Of course no admission fee was charged; but a collection was taken for voluntary contributions for the good cause. Mr. Thomas has a superb and costly gramophone, and the selections rendered last night won the very warmest commendations from the delighted assemblage. A special record was made last night of the selections entitled "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds," the singers present rendering the sacred song, and the gramophone producing it in splendid form and manner.

The arrests of many prominent insurgents started the movement, which seems to be becoming universal, at Jaro, Molo, Mandurriao, Arevalo and Iloilo. Considerable sums of money and large quantities of supplies have been captured by the Americans.

The Taft commission passed an act for General MacArthur to establish police in the cities and towns and appropriating $150,000 for their maintenance. Commissioner Wright has, among other duties, supervision of the constabulary feature.

THE RADICALS VOTED DOWN.

Conservatives Defeated Two Resolutions at Federation Convention.

Louisville, Dec. 14.—Two resolutions championed by the radical element were voted down by overwhelming majorities, in the American Federation of Labor convention. One was a bitter pronouncement against trusts and monopolies in general and the other a declaration in favor of the co-operative commonwealth and government ownership and control of all means of production and distribution. For both of them much more moderate substitutes were adopted after a long debate.

Throughout the debate the proponents of the resolutions claimed socialism as the only solution of the industrial problems; trades unionism, they said, would last as long as the competitive system prevails, but the competitive system should be done away with and the co-operative commonwealth should take its place.

President Gompers and his colleagues, who opposed the resolutions, took the ground that the Federation should not be committed to any political party and that the government ownership proposition is at this time an impracticable theory, with no definite plan for development into a working system.

WORTHY MASTER HILL RE-ELECTED.

Other Officers Chosen at Pennsylvania State Grange Convention.

Lock Haven, Pa., Dec. 14.—Worthy Master W. F. Hill, of Westford, was unanimously re-elected at the meeting of the Pennsylvania State Grange. Several candidates were nominated against him, but his nearest competitor only received 27 votes.

The other officers elected were: Steward, H. M. Goodhall, of Patton; assistant steward, H. H. Pratt, of Oceanville; chaplain, Rev. W. H. Clipman, Fineleville; treasurer, S. E. Niven, Laudenburg; secretary, J. T. Ahman, of Thompsonson; gate keeper, W. Chase, Fairbrook; cores, Mrs. V. B. Holiday, Crooked Creek; pomona, Mrs. L. A. Thayer, Atlantic; flora, Miss Florence Rhone, Centre Hall; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Mary E. Bloom, Lock Haven; executive committee, G. W. Oster, Osterburg; finance committee, J. T. Patton, of Warriors Mark.

A WILL LEFT BY MRS. MCLEAN.

Her Estate Divided Equally Among the Three Children.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The will of Mrs. Mary L. McLean was filed for probate. The will is dated Dec. 17, 1896. To John R. McLean, son of the testatrix, a special silver tea service, marked "Washington McLean," is bequeathed. All household furniture and personal effects, with the exception of a certain watch and ring, are left in equal shares to Mary McLean Bugher (now Ludlow) and Mildred McLean Hazen (now Dewey). A gold watch studded with diamonds and a solitaire diamond ring are left to Emily Hale McLean, daughter-in-law of the testatrix.

Manila, Dec. 14.—General Kobbe, with the Twenty-eighth volunteer regiment, Colonel Birkimer commanding the regiment, landed at Cagayan, on the northern coast of Mindanao, and reinforced the six companies of the Fortieth volunteer regiment stationed in the town. An aggressive movement had been planned.

From Iloilo it is unofficially reported that the insurgents in that part of the island of Panay are swearing allegiance at the rate of a thousand a day. The arrests of many prominent insurgents started the movement, which seems to be becoming universal, at Jaro, Molo, Mandurriao, Arevalo and Iloilo. A DELIGHTFUL

Gramophone Entertainment at the Home Residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Thomas.

This entertainment was given last night at the home residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Thomas, Seventh street. There were some fifty persons in attendance. The proceeds are for the benefit of the deaconess fund of the First M. E. church. Of course no admission fee was charged; but a collection was taken for voluntary contributions for the good cause. Mr. Thomas has a superb and costly gramophone, and the selections rendered last night won the very warmest commendations from the delighted assemblage. A special record was made last night of the selections entitled "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds," the singers present rendering the sacred song, and the gramophone producing it in splendid form and manner.

EAST END.

THE SCHOOLS.

General Opinion Prevails in East End That They Should be Kept Closed.

A large number of East End people were seen today respecting the announcement that the schools will be opened Monday, and the general opinion prevails that they should be kept closed.

The argument is used that school will be in session but a week until the regular holiday vacation and that this will allow barely time to get started before they will be compelled to close again.

There is objection in some quarters to the pay of the teachers going on while school is not in session, but a great majority of the people approached on the subject assert that they don't know of any educators in this section of the city who are getting rich from the pay they receive for their services, and seem to think the teachers receive little enough when they are on duty.

A NEW CASE.

Mrs. Adams, Who Has Been Nursing at Stamms, Now Has the Diphtheria.

Mrs. Adams, who has been nursing in the family of John Stamm for about two weeks, was taken ill yesterday and last evening Dr. Hobbs was summoned. The physician pronounced the illness diphtheria. The lady is not seriously ill, although a large quantity of anti-toxine was administered last night.

The condition of Lizzie Stamm, in the same house, is about the same as yesterday and no improvement is noticeable.

Spilled the Oysters.

A six-gallon bucket of oysters consigned to George McKinnon & Son, the East End restaurant firm, was thrown from the 8 o'clock train this morning by the express messenger and the contents spilled. The firm refused to accept the shipment and the express company will be compelled to stand the loss.

AN ACCIDENT

Befel Hugh Patterson, of Beaver County, This Morning Just Before Noon.

Hugh Patterson and son Mont, who reside just over the line in Pennsylvania, met with an accident shortly before noon today.

They were driving along in a buggy and had reached the top of the hill known as Cunningham's road, when the horse scared at some cows being driven and owned by John Messer. The horse jumped over the hill and Mont, who was driving, pulled on the lines and turned him into the road. The quick turn of the horse upset the buggy and as it turned over the single-tree was pulled off and the horse ran off, but did not succeed in getting far before some bars barred his way. He jumped the bars and was finally captured by William Allison.

Mr. Patterson and son were thrown from the buggy and received several bruises.

The horse was not injured and the only damage to the buggy was the loss of the single-tree.

Scholars Fought.

Yesterday afternoon at the dismissal of school four of the scholars became involved in a fight. One of the youngsters was hit on the back of the head with a stone, which cut a large gash. He is able to attend school today.

Accepted a Position.

THE SCHOOLS.

General Opinion Prevails in East End That They Should be Kept Closed.

A large number of East End people were seen today respecting the announcement that the schools will be opened Monday, and the general opinion prevails that they should be kept closed.

The argument is used that school will be in session but a week until the regular holiday vacation and that this will allow barely time to get started before they will be compelled to close again.

There is objection in some quarters to the pay of the teachers going on while school is not in session, but a great majority of the people approached on the subject assert that they don't know of any educators in this section of the city who are getting rich from the pay they receive for their services, and seem to think the teachers receive little enough when they are on duty.

A NEW CASE.

Mrs. Adams, Who Has Been Nursing at Stamms, Now Has the Diphtheria.

Mrs. Adams, who has been nursing in the family of John Stamm for about two weeks, was taken ill yesterday and last evening Dr. Hobbs was summoned. The physician pronounced the illness diphtheria. The lady is not seriously ill, although a large quantity of anti-toxine was administered last night.

The condition of Lizzie Stamm, in the same house, is about the same as yesterday and no improvement is noticeable.

Spilled the Oysters.

A six-gallon bucket of oysters consigned to George McKinnon & Son, the East End restaurant firm, was thrown from the 8 o'clock train this morning by the express messenger and the contents spilled. The firm refused to accept the shipment and the express company will be compelled to stand the loss.

Among the Sick.

Mrs. Clem Duncan is ill at her home on St. George street, suffering from heart trouble.

Lou, a small son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, of East End, is ill.

Leslie Spence, of Helena, is suffering with grip.

Pleasant Sewing Party.

A very pleasant sewing party was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Harris, Pennsylvania avenue. A large number of guests were present and an enjoyable time was had by all.

Putting Up Fuse Boxes.

Several employees of the light company are today putting up fuse boxes on Virginia avenue, preparatory to wiring the sewer pipe works for electric lights.

Slipmakers Off Duty.

The slipmakers at the National pottery are off duty today owing to a break in the pump. It will require some time to repair the break.

She is Very Ill.

Mrs. Hoskins, an aged lady residing on First avenue, is very ill, and her death is thought to be the matter of but a short time.

Has Lung Trouble.

Mrs. Mattie Fisher, of High street, is suffering with an attack of lung trouble.

Handsome Calendars.

B. C. Ansley, the popular Fourth street druggist, presented this office with a very handsome and artistic calendar today. Thanks.

AN ACCIDENT

Befel Hugh Patterson, of Beaver County, This Morning Just Before Noon.

Hugh Patterson and son Mont, who reside just over the line in Pennsylvania, met with an accident shortly before noon today.

They were driving along in a buggy and had reached the top of the hill known as Cunningham's road, when the horse scared at some cows being driven and owned by John Messer. The horse jumped over the hill and Mont, who was driving, pulled on the lines and turned him into the road. The quick turn of the horse upset the buggy and as it turned over the single-tree was pulled off and the horse ran off, but did not succeed in getting far before some bars barred his way. He jumped the bars and was finally captured by William Allison.

Mr. Patterson and son were thrown from the buggy and received several bruises.

The horse was not injured and the only damage to the buggy was the loss of the single-tree.

Scholars Fought.

Yesterday afternoon at the dismissal of school four of the scholars became involved in a fight. One of the youngsters was hit on the back of the head with a stone, which cut a large gash. He is able to attend school today.

Accepted a Position.

W. H. Davis, of Alabama, who has been visiting at the home of William McClain in Chester, has gone to Pittsburgh, where he has taken a position. The gentleman left today and will make his future home in that city.

Died This Morning.

Curtis, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Martin, of Fifth street, died this morning at 8:30 o'clock from diabetes. The funeral will take place Sunday and interment will be made at Beaver.

A New Skating Park.

The Chester Street Car company had a force of men at work today cleaning Mark's pond of weeds, and it will be flooded today and used as a skating park.

Southside Notes.

Miss Maud Thayer, who has been filling the place of Miss Ruth Baxter as teacher at the Chester school, returned to her home in Cumberland this afternoon.

O. O. Allison has been compelled to tear out the partition between the store and residence in order to have more room.

C. S. Allison yesterday took the oath of office as sheriff of Hancock county. He appointed O. O. Allison deputy.

Thomas Oakes is today engaged in repairing his barn.

ENGAGED MAIDEN

Are Protected by a Recent Ruling of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

A statement that is going the rounds of the press says:

"The supreme court of Ohio has decided that a woman by engaging herself to marry a man, thereby acquires a dower interest in his estate. This statement is not accurate and since it may deter many eligible young men from contracting an honorable obligation the following correction in the interest of all marriageable maidens is made by Edward Kibler, a well known and prominent lawyer of Newark, O. "Were this so," says Mr. Kibler, "three results would follow:

"First—A woman would have dower in real estate of which her betrothed died the owner, although they never married.

"Second—She would have dower besides an action for breach of promise, if he afterward refused to marry her.

"Third—A man engaged to marry could not sell his land without obtaining the signature of his fiance to his anti-nuptial deed.

"Neither of these propositions is the law. What the supreme court actually decided (Ward vs. Ward, 44 bulletin, 205) was, that a man cannot commit a fraud upon his prospective wife by secretly giving away his property before marriage for the purpose of depriving her when married to him of her dower right.

The exact language of the court's holding is as follows:

"A conveyance by a man who has entered contract of marriage, which subsequently takes place, of a portion of his land to his sons by a former marriage, without consideration other than love and affection and without the knowledge or consent of a contemplated wife, is a fraud on her marital rights and she, at his death, is entitled to dower therein."

ELKINS HITS TREATY.

Short of What the People Will Want.

DAVIS AMENDMENT TOO WEAK.

If United States Builds Canal, He Predicted American People Will Desire Full Control—Offers an Amendment. Davis Amendment Adopted.

Washington, Dec. 14.—In accordance with previous agreement the senate, in executive session, took a vote on the amendment to the Hay-Pauncefort treaty, authorizing the United States to defend its interests in the canal. The vote was taken by yeas and nays, 65 votes being cast in favor of the amendment, and 17 against it. The negative votes were as follows:

Baird, Beveridge, Frye, Foster, Hansbrough, Lindsay, Mason, McCumber, McEnery, McBride, Morgan, Mony, Stewart, Tillman, Wellington, Wolcott and Ganninger.

After the amendment offered by the committee was passed upon various other amendments received the attention of the senate for a brief time, but none of them was acted upon.

The following is the Davis amendment adopted:

Insert at the end of section 5 of article 2 the following:

"It is agreed, however, that none of the immediately foregoing conditions and stipulations in sections numbered 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this article shall apply to measures which the United States may find it necessary to take for securing by its own forces the defense of the United States and the maintenance of public order."

After the committee amendment had been adopted some of the other senators took the floor to suggest further amendments.

The amendment which probably attracted most attention was offered by Senator Elkins, and is as follows: "Nothing in this treaty shall be construed to prevent the United States from acquiring sufficient security and sovereignty, or to prevent it from building, operating, maintaining, controlling and defending the said canal (referring to the proposed Nicaraguan canal) or for any other purpose that the United States may deem for its best interests."

Senator Lodge, in charge of the bill, was not slow to recognize the futility of trying to secure further consideration for the treaty as amended, and as soon as the amendments were all submitted he moved an adjournment until today, which motion prevailed.

Previous to taking the vote on the committee amendments Senator Elkins made a speech advocating radical alteration of the treaty. He announced himself as favorable to the committee amendment, but said that to his mind that amendment did not go far enough to meet the wishes of the American people. He believed, he said, that if the canal was to be constructed by the government of the United States the people would demand complete and absolute control over the canal itself, and also the right to exercise their own judgment, as a nation, not only in acquiring property in connection with the canal, but if need be in securing sovereignty over it. He contended that to pursue this course involved no violation of international rights, and in defense of this position said the United States had made an offensive and defensive treaty with France in 1793 and soon afterwards had repudiated that obligation. He also cited other precedents and authorities, some of them being from English sources, in support of this position. He argued, in short, that changed conditions warrant a change in conduct and in position. The speech was listened to with much interest, and at its conclusion a motion was made to have it made public. Objection, however, was raised, and the order was not made.

HANNA SPOKE FOR SHIP BILL.

Addressed the Senate—Received Some Congratulations.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Mr. Hanna, of Ohio, addressed the senate upon the ship subsidy bill. While he has spoken heretofore on the floor of the senate, his effort was really his first formal speech to the body since he became a member of it.

Since coming to the senate Mr. Hanna has devoted much time and labor to the preparation of the ship subsidy bill, and, as he is regarded by his colleagues as one of the best-informed public men on the question, his speech received unusually close attention. At the conclusion of the speech he received congratulations from some of his colleagues.

HANNA SPOKE FOR SHIP BILL

Addressed the Senate—Received Some Congratulations.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Mr. Hanna, of Ohio, addressed the senate upon the ship subsidy bill. While he has spoken heretofore on the floor of the Senate, his effort was really his first formal speech to the body since he became a member of it.

Since coming to the Senate Mr. Hanna has devoted much time and labor to the preparation of the ship subsidy bill, and, as he is regarded by his colleagues as one of the best-informed public men on the question, his speech received unusually close attention. At the conclusion of the speech he received congratulations from some of his colleagues.

16TH YEAR. NO. 159.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1900.

TWO CENTS

THE BARNES WERE IN COURT AGAIN

This Time They Acted as Plaintiffs
In Cases Against Constable
Miller.

ONE CASE WAS DISMISSED

Miller Made No Defense In the
Slander Action and Was
Bound Over

TO COURT IN THE SUM OF $100

The court of Justice H. P. McCarron was the scene last night of two cases, in both of which Constable James A. Miller figured as defendant.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes had each filed a suit against Miller, the former for assault and the latter on a charge of false and malicious libel in saying that Mrs. Barnes was a drunken woman, and had to be wheeled home in a wheelbarrow. The squire had set both cases for the same evening, and last night as early as 7 o'clock the court room was filled with witnesses and interested spectators.

Attorney G. Y. Travis was there in behalf of the constable, and the first matter to be considered was the complaint of John Barnes for assault. The offense was alleged to have been committed on the afternoon of December 6, in the office of Justice McLane while negotiations were in progress for the binding of Barnes to court on a charge of disturbing a public meeting, which had previously been held in the latter court.

But one witness was examined for the state, and he was Henry Rark, who had accompanied Barnes to the office of Justice McLane, and who went on the bond of Barnes at the time. Mr. Rark's testimony was convincing and left no doubt in the minds of those present as to his ability to illustrate just how it happened.

The witness testified that Barnes had called the defendant a liar and that Miller had sailed around the railing toward Barnes in a menacing manner. It was all he could do to keep the men apart. He thought the constable would have struck the plaintiff had he not been there.

John Barnes testified in his own behalf and told about the same story, with the exception that Miller, according to the testimony, had "flew" around the railing.

Barnes had not proceeded far when the attorney for defendant objected to the court putting testimony into the mouth of the witness, as he had asked several questions, to which the attorney had objected.

The prosecution rested with this, and David Stanley was called for the defense. The witness had seen the whole thing. Barnes had called Miller a liar, and the latter walked around the railing, shaking his fist at Barnes, saying he would not take that from any one.

Some amusement was created by the witness' answer to a question as to whether Miller flew around the railing. Stanley stated that anyone who knew Miller would never say he flew anywhere. He didn't see Miller strike Barnes; didn't see him strike at Barnes; in fact he didn't think Miller intended to strike him.

Justice McLane was the next witness, but he was not present and a delay was caused while Constable Powell went for him.

When he came he testified to practically the same as Stanley, excepting that Barnes had suggested to Rark that he let him at Miller. The court asked witness if he was not led to believe from what transpired that a fracas was imminent, to which Travis objected and the court did not insist. Later a similar question was put to the witness with a like result, but the court ruled that the testimony was competent and McLane said in his opinion if Miller had had as much sand as Barnes the men would have come together.

This ended the testimony and after a short argument on the part of Attorney Travis, the justice dismissed defendant at the cost of the prosecution.

The second case—that of Mrs. Barnes against the constable for false and malicious libel—was called immediately.

While the first case was in progress the plaintiff concluded that they had better have an attorney and Captain W. M. Hill, who was present, was retained.

The prosecution had the following witnesses sworn: W. B. Hill, John Wallace, Charles Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Bell, Henry Rark and John Barnes, and after the costs in the latter case had been posted in the hands of the squire the case was proceeded with.

John Wallace had heard Miller say that Mrs. Barnes had to be wheeled home in a wheelbarrow, and if he remembered rightly one of the Vodreys was mentioned as the man who had done the wheeling. The conversation had taken place in the office of Mr. W. B. Hill, where he is a law student.

Walter's Hill's testimony was along the same line and was the same in substance as that given by Wallace.

With these the prosecution rested and the plaintiff's attorney made a motion that the case be dismissed on the grounds that the prosecution had not proved what the bill of particulars charged, but the motion was overruled and the defense was about to proceed with their argument when another idea struck him, and they rested also.

It was now in the hands of the justice, who promptly bound defendant over to court in the sum of $100, which was as promptly furnished by E. W. Hill, and the case was at an end, at least as far as the lower court is concerned.

FOUND GUILTY.

THE JURY RETURNED A VERDICT
AGAINST JACK REAVES.

George Stewart, the Prosecuting Witness, Was Married Immediately After the Trial.

Lisbon, Dec. 14.—(Special.)—The jury in the case of Ohio versus Jack Reaves, of East Liverpool, returned a verdict charging him with being guilty of shooting George Stewart with intent to kill.

Notice was given that a motion for a new trial would be filed.

George H. B. Stewart, who was the prosecuting witness in the case of Ohio against Jack Reaves, yesterday came into probate court at the conclusion of the trial and was married to Miss Clara C. B. Wells. Stewart is from West Middleton, Pa., and his wife is from Wellsville.

Mayor Farrell performed the ceremony.

—Miss Frances Webster left this morning for Pittsburgh.

U. J. Smith, of Cleveland, Was

A NEW YORK SYNDICATE

Is Back of Him and He Is Positive
That the Road Will

BUILT IN LESS THAN TWO YEARS

If plans now under way mature the people of East Liverpool will be able to get aboard a trolley car in this city and in less than two hours arrive in the city of Salem without having to change cars during the journey.

U. J. Smith, of Cleveland, was in the city yesterday securing right of way for the new line. Mr. Smith is backed by a New York syndicate of capitalists who have the money to build and equip the line, and if they secure the necessary franchises from the Salem,

Lisbon and East Liverpool councils they propose to commence work May 1st, and have the road in operation by January, 1902.

The road will follow the old public road from Salem to Lisbon, passing Shelton's Grove.

After it leaves Lisbon it will follow the Wellsville road to West Point, here it will go through private property to what is known as the Welsh road and thence to this city. At Pleasant Heights it will branch off and come down Edgewood avenue to the city and land passengers in the Diamond.

Mr. Smith has secured all the right of way and will come into council in about 30 days and ask for a franchise. His is an entirely new company in the field and one that has had much experience in the building and operating of street railways.

The cars will be the same as are now used on the Cleveland and suburban lines. They will be 55-foot coaches, double trucks, air brakes and whistles and fitted with all the conveniences of a passenger coach.

It is also proposed to put in a large park near this city and run a summer theater.

Mr. Smith is very enthusiastic over the outlook and is confident that the road will be built in the time specified.

The people of this city will give him all the encouragement he wants, as they are very desirous of having such a line built. There is no question that the line would pay after a short time. Every person here sincerely hopes that this will not be another wild goose chase, and Mr. Smith states that it is not and that the line will positively be built within the time specified.

THE OWNERS OF A HANOVERTON SALOON DISAGREE AND

If Affairs Turn Out Right it Will Mean
That the Village Will Have One
Saloon Less.

Lisbon, Dec. 14.—(Special.)—Joseph S. Faloon, of Hanoverton, has asked the court to dissolve the saloon partnership in Hanoverton township and appoint a receiver to look after the affairs of the property and dispose of the same.

On October 1 last Faloon and Emmer Bettin entered into a partnership for the purpose of engaging in the saloon business. The agreement was that each was to furnish one-half of the capital and each bear one-half the loss. According to the contract Faloon furnished $400 and has since learned that Bettin did not contribute one cent, but instead has been buying large amounts of liquor and having them charged to the partnership.

He also says Bettin has been appropriating to his own use the money realized from the sales and has refused to account for it.

Mrs. Florence Wright, of Cumberland, has instituted proceedings in court against William C. Wright, as administrator in the estate of her mother, the late Mary Wright.

WON A CASE.

An Action in Replevin Before Squire Finney at Clarkson Last Friday.

A case of replevin was tried before Squire Finney last Friday, wherein the firm of Smith & Phillips, of East Liverpool, was plaintiff and John Flowers was defendant.

The property replevined was a Thompson organ, which had been purchased by Flowers in 1897 and on which he had paid only $10. Flowers refused to give up the organ and suit was brought to compel him to do so. The squire gave judgment for the amount of the claim and costs of action.

Attorney L. T. Farr, of Rogers, represented the plaintiff, and H. D. Cope, of East Carmel, was attorney for the defendant.

NO TRAIN.

The Agitation in Wellsville Goes Busily On, But Will Probably Amount to Nothing.

The agitation for a train from Wellsville to this city to carry the workmen to and fro goes busily on in Wellsville.

People who profess to know, claim the movement will amount to nothing, as the railroad company will not put on any trains, taking the position that should they do so the street railway company would put their cars back on the 12-minute schedule and then the parties would desert the train.

CONDUCTORS WILL GO ON MONDAY

Street Car Matter Has Been Adjudged Amicably to All Parties Concerned.

HEALY ACCEPTS PROPOSITION

Of Motormen and Will Play All New Men 18 Cents an Hour.

PATRONS WILL BE PLEASED

Commencing next Monday morning conductors will be placed on all the cars of the East Liverpool street railway line, and there is no doubt that the motormen and patrons of the line are very thankful, as this will mean an end of the numerous accidents to people getting on and off the cars.

Yesterday Manager Healy notified the motormen that he was willing to accede to their last proposition and would place conductors on the cars Monday morning. This proposition is that all new men shall receive 18 cents an hour for their first year, but that all old motormen shall receive 20 cents an hour.

It will be remembered that Manager Healy made a proposition to the motormen to pay them all 18 cents an hour, so that the settlement is a compromise.

The manager of the line and the men, as well as the public, are pleased that the question was settled in so amicable a way. The men have the warmest terms of praise for Manager Healy, and say that in all their dealings with him they have found him to be fair and willing to arbitrate any question which may arise.

The public in general will be very glad to know that the matter was settled without a strike. They will be pleased to learn that conductors will be put on the line.

HOW FAKE REPORTS GET THEIR START

East Liverpool Is Just Now Overburdened With Unreliable Correspondents Who Send

BADLY EXAGGERATED STORIES

The Closing of East End Schools Gave Them a Splendid Opportunity.

A TELEGRAM TO THE MAYOR

The irresponsible correspondent is a menace to the welfare of any city, and just now East Liverpool seems to be overburdened with a stock of them.

When the East End schools were closed it gave the so-called correspondent a chance and little did he care what kind of a report he sent out to the city papers just so he could rake in the 25 or 30 cents the article would bring to his pockets. He sent the report and had all the schools, churches and public halls in the city closed, while the diphtheria, according to his story, was carrying off people by the dozens every day.

The item was copied in all the state papers and the correspondent swelled up and conveyed to some of his friends the idea of what a wonderful man he was and exhibited the few cents the story brought him. He don't care for his town, he is not built that way.

An idea of what damage he can do to a city is given in the following telegram, which was received yesterday by Mayor Davidson:

"Canton, O., Dec. 13.

"The Honorable Mayor, East Liverpool,

"Reported diphtheria epidemic exists and public places closed. Will you please wire fully. Have big company and don't want to take chances.

"J. B. DICKSON,

"Manager Humpty Dumpty."

Mayor Davidson at once wired back: "No epidemic of any kind in city; not even that of crime. Bring on your company."

Stories like the kind sent out about the diphtheria are to be expected in the future, as the correspondent is well known to the people in the city.

The city papers should be notified of the irresponsibility of their correspondents in this city and an effort made to put a stop to the plain and unvarnished falsehoods.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND WAS HEARD. He and McGoldrick Declare Canteen In Interest of Temperance.

Washington, Dec. 14.—In the senate committee on military affairs the hearing on the army reorganization bill was continued, and in addition to a number of army officers, Archbishop Ireland and Bishop McGoldrick were heard. The two prelates spoke only on the provision of the bill prohibiting the establishment of canteens or post exchanges. Both of them pronounced the provision unwise and expressed the opinion that the canteen is in the interest of temperance and good morals in the army.

Archbishop Ireland based his remarks especially upon his observations of affairs at Fort Snelling, near his home, at St. Paul. He said that he was sure from all that he had seen and heard among the soldiers that the canteen is a powerful factor in the protection of the soldiers from outside temptations of all kinds, and he did not accept the theory that the canteen brings temptation to the troops that otherwise would not come to them.

The archbishop said he was a total abstainer himself.

Senator Burrows asked a question concerning the canteen as a temptation to young men in the army who had never drank before entering the ranks.

"That sort of a man in the army is rather a rare article," the archbishop replied, "but if the rare article does turn up, as it may, and if a man is found in the army who has been able to resist the temptations of the saloons in ordinary life, I think he will be able to resist the evils of the canteen."

Colonel Gueht Jr., senior artillery colonel, and Major Romeyn, a retired army officer, also took a positive stand for the canteen.

JURORS HAD NOT AGREED.

Those In Morrison Case Were Again Sent to Bed Last Night.

Eldorado, Kan., Dec. 14.—Judge Shinn sent the Morrison jurors to their hotel about 9:30 last night and instructed them to resume their deliberations at 8:30 this morning. The 12 men looked tired and faded as they filed out of the court room. They have informed the court that they are hopelessly of different minds as regards Miss Morrison's guilt and that they have stopped balloting in the jury room.

Judge Shinn would give out no intimation as to the length of time he would permit the jury to deliberate.

SKILLED WORKMEN.

The printers employed on the News Review are skillful and careful workmen. We employ none other. Advertisements are set up artistically, carefully and judiciously, much to the delight of our business patrons. Lesser lights, in would-be rival establishments, pattern after the styles we originate. The advertisement on the eighth page of last night's issue is a beauty. Permit us to "tongue" our bugle. We admire a skillful, honest and sober workman.

HIS WORD OF HONOR.

When a man's pledged word of honor amounts to nothing; when he pledges that which he calls "his honor" that he is telling the truth, and then lies, outrageously and premeditatedly, his oath on a stack of bibles would not amount to a bauble, and would not be taken in any court in the land. Such a fellow is sure to be a failure, even in this life. He may deceive his fellows, and the public at large, for the time being, and apparently be on the road to success; but, sooner or later, his downfall will come. The handwriting is on the wall. He has builded on an evil, untrustworthy and false foundation, and his structure is sure to tumble into the dust of defeat and humiliation. "Honesty is the best policy." "Truth is mighty and shall prevail." The liar and cheat is beneath the contempt of true men and true women. He is a tool of the devil, working for his Master at starvation wages. Respectfully referred to the miserable creature to whom this applies, and he resides right here in East Liverpool.

GOOD AND BAD.

A good, pure, honest Christian woman is an admirable character, worthy of the warmest commendation and highest respect. Such a woman or girl is a blessing to any home or community. She is the peer of any one on earth. One of God's choicest blessings, be she rich or poor, great or humble, the inhabitant of an humble cottage or the dweller in a palace. Every true and honorable man regards her with respect and esteem. Her direct opposite is the woman or girl vile of language and conduct, associating with vile characters and gradually approaching the horrible pathway of the scarlet woman, whose feet tramp down to hades. Such a creature is a curse inconceivable in any community, to be dreaded as one would dread a pestilence or a leper. And the man, young or old, who encourages or associates with such miserable women is an unsafe and dangerous man, to be barred from all decent and respectable society, even more than one with the mark of Cain upon his forehead. Teach them the lesson in East Liverpool.

MRS. JANE BARNES

WANTS THE CASE AGAINST HER HUSBAND TRIED.

She Appeared at the Office of Squire McLane And Made a Request.

Mrs. Jane Barnes came to the office of Justice McLane this morning, and from all indications she was there for business and nothing else.

The squire was calm, as usual, and refused to become excited. Mrs. Barnes stated that the object of her visit was to make a demand that the case against her husband for disturbing a public meeting be taken up and tried.

It will be remembered that on December 6, Barnes had appeared in McLane's court, waived a hearing and was bound over to court. The squire inquired who the woman's attorney was and was informed that was her business and none of his. She was told to send her attorney to attend to any business she might have to transact, as the court would not treat with her.

It is likely that nothing will be done with the matter here, as the transcript has been prepared and will undoubtedly go over to court.

HELD UP BY ONE MAN.

Train Robbery Near New Orleans City Limit.

CONDUCTOR SHOT IN THE GROIN.

A Railway Mail Clerk Slightly Powder Burned—Robber Got One Mail Pouch and Six Registered Letters—Rode Away on the Engine, Then Abandoned It.

New Orleans, Dec. 14.—A south bound Illinois Central fast mail train was held up and robbed by a lone train robber about one mile above the upper limits of the city. Though some of the train crew said they saw four or more men concealed in the bushes, only one man figured in the action, and his booty consisted of only one registered mail pouch from Durant, Miss., and six other registered letters from points between Cairo and New Orleans. Conductor Kinnebrew was shot in the groin and J. C. Parker, railway mail clerk, has his left eye powder burned by a shot directed at his head. The robber got on the train, it is supposed, at some point above the city, and after passing Kenner he went over to the engine and covered the engineer and fireman and brought the train to a standstill.

When the conductor came forward to see what the trouble was he was shot by the robber. R. E. Goldsby, a railway mail clerk, stuck his head out of the door and was ordered to jump down, which he did. Then the robber led the engineer, fireman and Goldsby toward the express car and made one of them blow the side of it out with a stick of dynamite which he supplied. This train carries no money and has no safe. The robber then went for the mail car and there discovered Parker, who had hidden the registered pouches. He shot at him and then one of the pouches was produced and he made off with it. He uncoupled the engine from the train and ran it to a point near Carrollton avenue, where he abandoned it. The robber was evidently well acquainted with railroading.

ROBBED BANK AND FLED.

Thieves Got Over $3,000 at Shanesville.
O.—Fired Shots at Different People.

Canal Dover, O., Dec. 14.—Four men broke into the private bank of John Doerschuk, at Shanesville, blew open the safe by a terrific charge of nitroglycerin. The explosion awakened those who live in the vicinity of the bank.

John Rhoades, who lives directly across the street from the bank, sprang from his bed and hastened to the window. Within the bank he saw two men working. On guard in front were two others. Dressing hastily, he ran down stairs and into the street, revolver in hand. As he emerged the two men on guard made him a target and one bullet after another whistled by him.

Rhoades emptied his revolver. Then he took shelter in the house. Rhoades believes he shattered an arm of one of the men.

Miss Mary Knowles, a relative of Banker Doerschuk, who lives within a few feet of the bank, threw up the window of her sleeping chamber and screamed shrilly. A bullet crashed into the wood near her head and the frightened girl disappeared. By this time other men had armed themselves and were running toward the bank from all directions. Bullets from the robber guards sent each scurrying back to cover.

Burdened with between $3,000 and $4,000 worth of gold, silver and bank notes, the four men huddled together and moved rapidly through the darkness to the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad, clearing their path and covering their retreat by a fusilade of bullets. At the railroad they sprang aboard a hand car and slowly gathering speed started away northward.

Steamfitter's Helper Killed.

Pittsburg, Dec. 14.—John Balles, 25 years old, a steam fitter's helper, was killed while at work in Campbell & Horigan's works at No. 4718 Penn avenue. The man's clothing was caught in shafting, and he was almost instantly killed.

ROBBERY ON A MAIL CAR.

Two Men Committed Deed—Postal Clerk Assaulted by One—May Die.

Texarkana, Ark., Dec. 14.—A bold robbery on the Cottonbelt railway occurred near Bassett, Texas, 30 miles south of Texarkana, on the train coming north, in which Postal Clerk John N. Dennis was almost killed and the mail pouches of the car rifled of their contents.

A hurried examination showed that the registered packages had been ripped open and robbed of their contents, the most valuable of which was the Waco-Memphis through pouch, containing a large number of valuable packages.

Dennis was revived sufficiently at a hospital to say that two men had committed the deed, one of whom assaulted him. He is in a critical condition.

Examination of the car showed that the robbers gained entrance by crawling through a small trap door in the floor of the vestibule.

Word reached here that two suspects had been arrested at Naples, near the scene of the robbery, but none of the stolen packages were found. Dennis is an old and trusted mail clerk.

GANS WAS KNOCKED OUT.

The Fight Won by McGovern In the Second Round.

Chicago, Dec. 14.—Terry McGovern knocked out Joe Gans, of Baltimore, after about two minutes and five seconds of fighting in the second round. Gans put up a very poor exhibition. He was knocked down twice in the first round and four times in the second.

On the last knockdown he was on his back for six seconds; rolled over on his face, rose to his left knee and remained in that position until Siler tapped him on the shoulder, telling him that the fight was over and that he was a loser. He was lifted and was able to walk in a feeble manner to his corner.

Gans had no excuses to offer for his defeat. His seconds, however, said that he was over trained and that his stomach had been bad all day.

After the fight there were many vigorous expressions of dissatisfaction among the crowd, it being openly asserted by many that Gans made a deliberate fake of his fight.

REDUCED NUMBER OF DIRECTORS.

Baseball Magnates Have Fewer—Abandon Southern Practice Trips.

New York, Dec. 14.—The National magnates decided to reduce the board of directors from a membership of six to four.

Soden, of Boston; Freedman, of New York; Brush, of Cincinnati, and Dreyfuss, of Pittsburg, compose the new board.

Messrs. Soden, Young, Robison, Brush, Rogers and Hart were appointed members of the board of arbitration.

It was decided not to have any more southern practice trips, and that players shall not report for preliminary practice before April 1.

The demands of the players came in for a long discussion. No decision was reached.

The demands made by the players' organization were denied by the club owners. The players, however, were invited by the league to apply for another hearing, which was done.

Steamfitter's Helper Killed.

Pittsburg, Dec. 14.—John Balles, 25 years old, a steam fitter's helper, was killed while at work in Campbell & Horigan's works at No. 4718 Penn avenue. The man's clothing was caught in shafting, and he was almost instantly killed.

ANOTHER TRIAL.

The Michaels-Cloran Forceable Detention Case Will Get Another Hearing.

The attorneys in the suit of John Michaels against Michael Cloran met in the office of Justice McCarron last evening, and after a great deal of discussion the case was fixed for trial on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock.

It will be remembered this suit is for forcible detention, and was tried to a jury on Tuesday and the jury failing to agree it was necessary to retry the case.

The jury before whom the suit will be tried on this occasion are: T. M. Bennett, W. T. Burton, W. H. Gass, Chas. B. Fisher and Edward Hassey.

SWEAR ALLEGIANCE.

Number of Rebels Said to Have Taken Oaths.

ABOUT 1,000 A DAY RUMORED.

The Arrests of Prominent Insurgents Unofficially Reported to Have Started the Movement In the Section of Panay In Which Iloilo Is Situated.

Manila, Dec. 14.—General Kobbe, with the Twenty-eighth volunteer regiment, Colonel Birkimer commanding the regiment, landed at Cagayan, on the northern coast of Mindanao, and reinforced the six companies of the Fortieth volunteer regiment stationed in the town. An aggressive movement had been planned.

From Iloilo it is unofficially reported that the insurgents in that part of the island of Panay are swearing allegiance at the rate of a thousand a day. The arrests of many prominent insurgents started the movement, which seems to be becoming universal, at Jaro, Molo, Mandurria, Arevalo and Iloilo. Considerable sums of money and large quantities of supplies have been captured by the Americans.

The Taft commission passed an act for General MacArthur to establish police in the cities and towns and appropriating $150,000 for their maintenance. Commissioner Wright has, among other duties, supervision of the constabulary feature.

THE RADICALS VOTED DOWN.

Conservatives Defeated Two Resolutions at Federation Convention.

Louisville, Dec. 14.—Two resolutions championed by the radical element were voted down by overwhelming majorities, in the American Federation of Labor convention. One was a bitter pronouncement against trusts and monopolies in general and the other a declaration in favor of the co-operative commonwealth and government ownership and control of all means of production and distribution. For both of them much more moderate substitutes were adopted after a long debate.

Throughout the debate the proponents of the resolutions claimed socialism as the only solution of the industrial problems; trades unionism, they said, would last as long as the competitive system prevails, but the competitive system should be done away with and the co-operative commonwealth should take its place.

President Gompers and his colleagues, who opposed the resolutions, took the ground that the Federation should not be committed to any political party and that the government ownership proposition is at this time an impracticable theory, with no definite plan for development into a working system.

WORTHY MASTER HILL RE-ELECTED.

Other Officers Chosen at Pennsylvania State Grange Convention.

Lock Haven, Pa., Dec. 14.—Worthy Master W. F. Hill, of Westford, was unanimously re-elected at the meeting of the Pennsylvania State Grange. Several candidates were nominated against him, but his nearest competitor only received 27 votes.

The other officers elected were: Steward, H. M. Goodhall, of Patton; assistant steward, H. H. Pratt, of Oceanville; chaplain, Rev. W. H. Clipman, Finleville; treasurer, S. E. Nivin, Landenburg; secretary, J. T. Allman, of Thompsonstown; gate keeper, W. Chase, Fairbrook; clerks, Mrs. V. B. Holiday, Crooked Creek; Pomona, Mrs. L. A. A WILL LEFT BY MRS. McLEAN.

Her Estate Divided Equally Among the Three Children.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The will of Mrs. Mary L. McLean was filed for probate. The will is dated Dec. 17, 1896. To John R. McLean, son of the testatrix, a special silver tea service, marked "Washington McLean," is bequeathed. All household furniture and personal effects, with the exception of a certain watch and ring, are left in equal shares to Mary McLean Bugher (now Ludlow) and Mildred McLean Hazen (now Dewey). A gold watch studded with diamonds and a solitaire diamond ring are left to Emily Beale McLean, daughter-in-law of the testatrix.

A DELIGHTFUL

Gramophone Entertainment at the Home Residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Thomas.

This entertainment was given last night at the home residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Thomas, Seventh street. There were some fifty persons in attendance. The proceeds are for the benefit of the deacons fund of the First M. E. church. Of course no admission fee was charged; but a collection was taken for voluntary contributions for the good cause. Mr. Thomas has a superb and costly gramophone, and the selections rendered last night won the very warmest commendations from the delighted assemblage. A special record was made last night of the selections entitled "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds," the singers present rendering the sacred song, and the gramophone producing it in splendid form and manner.

EAST END.

THE SCHOOLS.

General Opinion Prevails in East End That They Should be Kept Closed.

A large number of East End people were seen today respecting the announcement that the schools will be opened Monday, and the general opinion prevails that they should be kept closed.

The argument is used that school will be in session but a week until the regular holiday vacation and that this will allow barely time to get started before they will be compelled to close again.

There is objection in some quarters to the pay of the teachers going on while school is not in session, but a great majority of the people approached on the subject assert that they don't know of any educators in this section of the city who are getting rich from the pay they receive for their services, and seem to think the teachers receive little enough when they are on duty.

A NEW CASE.

Mrs. Adams, Who Has Been Nursing at Stamms, Now Has the Diphtheria.

Mrs. Adams, who has been nursing in the family of John Stamm for about two weeks, was taken ill yesterday and last evening Dr. Hobbs was summoned. The physician pronounced the illness diphtheria. The lady is not seriously ill, although a large quantity of anti-toxine was administered last night.

The condition of Lizzie Stamm, in the same house, is about the same as yesterday and no improvement is noticeable.

Spilled the Oysters.

A six-gallon bucket of oysters consigned to George McKinnon & Son, the East End restaurant firm, was thrown from the 8 o'clock train this morning by the express messenger and the contents spilled. The firm refused to accept the shipment and the express company will be compelled to stand the loss.

Among the Sick.

Mrs. Clem Duncan is ill at her home on St. George street, suffering from heart trouble.

Lou, a small son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith, of East End, is ill.

Leslie Spence, of Helana, is suffering with grip.

Pleasant Sewing Party.

A very pleasant sewing party was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Harris, Pennsylvania avenue. A large number of guests were present and an enjoyable time was had by all.

Putting Up Fuse Boxes.

Several employees of the light company are today putting up fuse boxes on Virginia avenue, preparatory to wiring the sewer pipe works for electric lights.

Slipmakers Off Duty.

The slipmakers at the National pottery are off duty today owing to a break in the pump. It will require some time to repair the break.

She is Very Ill.

Mrs. Hoskins, an aged lady residing on First avenue, is very ill, and her death is thought to be the matter of but a short time.

Has Lung Trouble.

Mrs. Mattie Fisher, of High street, is suffering with an attack of lung trouble.

Handsome Calendars.

B. C. Ansley, the popular Fourth street druggist, presented this office with a very handsome and artistic calendar today. Thanks.

SOUTH SIDE.

AN ACCIDENT

Befel Hugh Patterson, of Beaver County, This Morning Just Before Noon.

Hugh Patterson and son Mont, who reside just over the line in Pennsylvania, met with an accident shortly before noon today.

They were driving along in a buggy and had reached the top of the hill known as Cunningham's road, when the horse scared at some cows being driven and owned by John Messer. The horse jumped over the hill and Mont, who was driving, pulled on the lines and turned him into the road. The quick turn of the horse upset the buggy and as it turned over the single-tree was pulled off and the horse ran off, but did not succeed in getting far before some bars barred his way. He jumped the bars and was finally captured by William Allison.

Mr. Patterson and son were thrown from the buggy and received several bruises.

The horse was not injured and the only damage to the buggy was the loss of the single-tree.

Scholars Fought.

Yesterday afternoon at the dismissal of school four of the scholars became involved in a fight. One of the youngsters was hit on the back of the head with a stone, which cut a large gash. He is able to attend school today.

Accepted a Position.

W. H. Davis, of Alabama, who has been visiting at the home of William McClain in Chester, has gone to Pittsburgh, where he has taken a position. The gentleman left today and will make his future home in that city.

Died This Morning.

Curtis, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Martin, of Fifth street, died this morning at 8:30 o'clock from diabetes. The funeral will take place Sunday and interment will be made at Beaver.

A New Skating Park.

The Chester Street Car company had a force of men at work today cleaning Mark's pond of weeds, and it will be flooded today and used as a skating park.

Southside Notes.

JOSEPH BROS.

ENCAGED MAIDEN

Are Protected by a Recent Ruling of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

A statement that is going the rounds of the press says:

"The supreme court of Ohio has decided that a woman by engaging herself to marry a man, thereby acquires a dower interest in his estate. This statement is not accurate and since it may deter many eligible young men from contracting an honorable obligation the following correction in the interest of all marriageable maidens is made by Edward Kibler, a well known and prominent lawyer of Newark, O. "Were this so," says Mr. Kibler, "three results would follow:

"First—A woman would have dower in real estate of which her betrothed died the owner, although they never married.

"Second—She would have dower besides an action for breach of promise, if he afterward refused to marry her.

"Third—A man engaged to marry could not sell his land without obtaining the signature of his fiance to his anti-nuptial deed.

"Neither of these propositions is the law. What the supreme court actually decided (Ward vs. Ward, 44 bulletin, 205) was, that a man cannot commit a fraud upon his prospective wife by secretly giving away his property before marriage for the purpose of depriving her when married to him of her dower right.

The exact language of the court's holding is as follows:

"A conveyance by a man who has entered contract of marriage, which subsequently takes place, of a portion of his land to his sons by a former marriage, without consideration other than love and affection and without the knowledge or consent of a contemplated wife, is a fraud on her marital rights and she, at his death, is entitled to dowry therein."

Exporters of Ceramics.

Walter Schumann, United States consul at Mainz, reports to his government some information which should be of value to the American exporter of ceramics. He has it from a German authority. Smyrna, French and German ceramic articles have almost entirely replaced English ware, owing to the lower price of the former. The imports of ceramics at Smyrna are stated to amount to about $50,000 per annum, of which only one-tenth is from the factories of Staffordshire, the greater part coming from Saargemund, Germany, and from Belgium.

OAKWOOD POTTERY.

East Liverpool Has Just Cause for Pride in the Beautiful Ware Turned Out.

Readers of the News Review, have you paid a visit to the furniture establishment of the S. G. Hard Co., Fifth street, and noted the exquisite art pottery now being displayed there? If you have not, then you have missed a genuine treat. The shapes are superb, the coloring rich and beautiful, the decorations all that can be desired. Delighted purchasers are loud in their praise of Oakwood Art Pottery. All the work on these elegant designs is done by hand, under the skillful manipulation of born artists. The product now on exhibition comes from the first kiln burned at No. 106 Huston street, East Liverpool, near new pump house, and our citizens have a right to be proud of the beauties turned out. The proprietors are our townsmen, Messrs. Henry Schmidt, Harry Benty and Louis Benty. We predict for them and their establishment lasting success. And don't you fail to visit the S. G. Hard Company and secure some of these beautiful art goods as presents for your dear ones for Christmas. Patronize your home establishments. Encourage home industry.

ELKINS HITS TREATY.

Short of What the People Will Want.

DAVIS AMENDMENT TOO WEAK.

If United States Builds Canal, He Predicted American People Will Desire Full Control—Offers an Amendment. Davis Amendment Adopted.

Washington, Dec. 14.—In accordance with previous agreement of the senate, in executive session, took a vote on the amendment to the Hay-Pauncefort treaty, authorizing the United States to defend its interests in the canal. The vote was taken by yeas and nays, 65 votes being cast in favor of the amendment, and 17 against it. The negative votes were as follows:

Baird, Beveridge, Frye, Foster, Hansbrough, Lindsay, Mason, McCumber, McEnery, McBride, Morgan, Mony, Stewart, Tillman, Wellington, Wolcott and Ganninger.

After the amendment offered by the committee was passed upon various other amendments received the attention of the senate for a brief time, but none of them was acted upon.

The following is the Davis amendment adopted:

Insert at the end of section 5 of article 2 the following:

"It is agreed, however, that none of the immediately foregoing conditions and stipulations in sections numbered 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this article shall apply to measures which the United States may find it necessary to take for securing by its own forces the defense of the United States and the maintenance of public order."

Aft r the committee amendment had been adopted some of the other senators took the floor to suggest further amendments.

The amendment which probably attracted most attention was offered by Senator Elkins, and is as follows: "Nothing in this treaty shall be construed to prevent the United States from acquiring sufficient security and sovereignty, or to prevent it from building, operating, maintaining, controlling and defending the said canal (referring to the proposed Nicaraguan canal) or for any other purpose that the United States may deem for its best interests."

Senator Lodge, in charge of the bill, was not slow to recognize the futility of trying to secure further consideration for the treaty as amended, and as soon as the amendments were all submitted he moved an adjournment until today, which motion prevailed.

Previous to taking the vote on the committee amendments Senator Elkins made a speech advocating radical alteration of the treaty. He announced himself as favorable to the committee amendment, but said that to his mind that amendment did not go far enough to meet the wishes of the American people. He believed, he said, that if the canal was to be constructed by the government of the United States the people would demand complete and absolute control over the canal itself, and also the right to exercise their own judgment as a nation, not only in acquiring property in connection with the canal, but if need be in securing sovereignty over it. He contended that to pursue this course involved no violation of international rights, and in defense of this position said the United States had made an offensive and defensive treaty with France in 1793 and soon afterwards had repudiated that obligation. He also cited other precedents and authorities, some of them being from English sources, in support of this position.

He argued, in short, that changed conditions warrant a change in conduct and in position. The speech was listened to with much interest, and at its conclusion a motion was made to have it made public. Objection, however, was raised, and the motion was not made.

Lawrence R. Watts, to be postmaster at London, O. Among nominations confirmed by the senate were these: To be members of the executive council of Porto Rico—Jose Guzman Benitez, of Ponce; Jose Gomez Briloso, of Ponce. A. B. Blanchard, of Louisiana, third secretary of the embassy at Paris. P. D. Cunningham, of Tennessee, to be consulting engineer in the international boundary commission (Mexican).

MOURNING FOR THE MISSING.

Captain and Twelve Men Believed to Have Perished at Sea.

Gloucester, Mass., Dec. 14.—This city is again mourning for the loss of several of her hardy sailors, this time for the captain and 12 men of the fishing schooner Sigfried, which has now been absent from this port for nearly 10 weeks, which is believed to have foundered in one of the terrible gales which for the past six weeks have been sweeping the North Atlantic. The Sigfried sailed from this port Sept. 14, and since that time she has not reported.

The Wicked Little Germ. Microbes attack their victims when they are worn out."

"That's so; we read about them until we are dead tired, and then they take an advantage of us."

Council this afternoon is holding a special session at city hall.

Miss Nan Snowden is ill at the home of her brother on Seventh street.

Atwood McClain, a merchant of Mechanicstown, was in the city yesterday on business.

Mrs. William Lynn, of Sixth street, who has been seriously ill for several days, is improving.

A marriage license has been granted to Alva R. Allison and Miss Ebba L. Martin, of Salineville.

The cold weather has caused a slight increase in business in the office of the township trustees.

Police business is decidedly slow at present and not an arrest has been made since Saturday night.

George Ridgley and Arthur Thomas, of Irondale, were in the city last night taking in "Poverty Row."

There will be just one more week of school before the annual holiday vacation of two weeks takes place.

Officer Morris this morning arrested a drunken individual on Sixth street. The man said his name was O'Brien.

William Downard, of this city, was arrested in Lisbon last evening for drunkenness and was fined $1 and costs.

Mrs. James Colley returned to her home in Salineville yesterday afternoon after a visit with her daughter Maud in this city.

The next regular meeting of city council comes up on Christmas night. It is needless to say that a meeting will not be held that night.

Mrs. F. W. Poland has returned from Sebring, where she has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Albright for several weeks.

Mrs. T. Campbell left yesterday afternoon for Allegheny, where she attended the funeral of her uncle, which took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The stage hands are endeavoring to secure for their benefit this season Charles Yale's "Evil Eye." The show will be here in the first part of January.

Fred Deidrick left this morning for Monaca for a visit with Mrs. Emily Carey. The lady received a bad fall some time ago and being well advanced in years is very ill.

K. J. Hendricks this morning in the court of Squire Rose commenced action against Edward Hassey for $250 on a promissory note. The case will come up for trial Monday morning at 8 o'clock.

Carpenters arrived in the city today and will make improvements at the Cleveland & Pittsburg station. They will put up a railing in front of the ticket windows in order to prevent crowding.

Residents of Franklin street would like to know when the pile of dirt at the corner of Rural lane will be moved. The dirt pile has been there for several days and is hard for pedestrians to get over.

P. B. Moore, deputy tax collector, was at the court of Squire McCarron this morning hearing a number of delinquent tax suits. Judgment was rendered in one case by confession, one by default and one was continued.

HANNA SPOKE FOR SHIP BILL.

Addressed the Senate—Received Some Congratulations.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Mr. Hanna, of Ohio, addressed the senate upon the ship subsidy bill. While he has spoken heretofore on the floor of the senate, his effort was really his first formal speech to the body since he became a member of it.

Since coming to the senate Mr. Hanna has devoted much time and labor to the preparation of the ship subsidy bill, and, as he is regarded by his colleagues as one of the best-informed public men on the question, his speech received unusually close attention. At the conclusion of the speech he received congratulations from some of his colleagues.

Grand Prix, Gold and Silver Medals awarded to Rookwood at Paris.

When Art Critics in Paris and London get enthusiastic over Rookwood, it must have unusual merit. For the old world is apt to look down upon any pretense of this country to high art. At the Paris Exposition Rookwood was awarded not only the Grand Prix, but also a Gold medal for Decorations and a Silver medal for Clays and their wonderful glaze. In fact, Rookwood captured all the honors worth taking. When there's a Christmas or Wedding Present wanted call on
